Advance Manifest Filing - Shipping Instruction Cut-offs

The movement towards advanced manifest filing rules continues to grow and the countries whom now require carriers to submit a list of customs-defined elements to their local customs authorities at least 24 hours prior to loading at the port of loading now include USA, Canada, China, Japan, Indonesia, Turkey, Israel, South Africa, Philippines, Bangladesh, and effective 1 August 2019, India.

In order for Ocean Network Express to comply with advanced manifest reporting time-frames, we kindly seek your assistance by providing us with your Shipping Instructions at least 2 working days prior to the vessel's ETA at the port of loading.

The customs-defined elements that need to be shown on Shipping Instructions are:

Shipper name, address, city/state, postcode, telephone number
Consignee name, address, city/state, postcode, telephone number, and Notify Party name, address, city/state, postcode, telephone number
Vessel name/voyage number
Port of Loading
Port of Discharge
Place of Delivery
Container number
Seal number
Precise commodity name/description
Types and number of packages
Gross weight
Measurement (M3)
If Hazardous, IMDG class number, UNNO.
Declared Value (for shipments to India)
Marks & Numbers

The omission of the above data from Shipping Instructions may lead to charges being levied by ONE, customs penalties and/or cargo not being loaded.

ONE's electronic shipping instruction platform may help improve efficiency in the creation of B/L and if you'd like to learn more, please do not hesitate to contact one of our representatives.

If you have any question's please do not hesitate to contact your local ONE representative.
